Testimonial for Liam Kelly, Ready for Retail

Three and a half years ago, when I bought my first brand new car, I swore that I would keep it clean and shiny and looking as good as the day I collected it. Sadly my resolution was soon forgotten as there always seems to be a better way of spending my time than washing and polishing. The only time the car was thoroughly cleaned was by the dealer when I took it in for servicing, but even they seemed to have given up and the bits of twig and small lumps of concrete left over from my trips to the tip were left in the boot after the last service.

Fortunately Liam from Ready for Retail came to the rescue and offered to valet the car for a very reasonable price. Liam's team only seemed to take a few minutes to do what would have taken hours of my time and when they had finished the car really did look as good as the day I collected it.

Although I don't have any plans to sell the car at the moment, it's good to know that it's now in a state where I wouldn't lose money on the sale because of its condition if I did decide to sell it.

Thanks Liam, I'll be back!
